POSTCARD NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

If you sold National Instruments Corporation (“National Instruments”) common stock between August 12, 2022 and August 30, 2022, inclusive, and/or between September 12, 2022 and September 28, 2022, inclusive, and were damaged thereby, you could be entitled to a payment from a proposed settlement (the “Settlement”) reached in the above-captioned action (the “Litigation”). Your rights may be affected by this Litigation and the Settlement. A hearing (the “Settlement Hearing”) will be held on January 13, 2027, at 2:30 p.m., before the Honorable Denise L. Cote, at the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007, Courtroom 18B, to determine whether the proposed Settlement of the Litigation against Defendants National Instruments, Eric Starkloff, and Michael McGrath for $28,000,000 in cash, and the Plan of Allocation, should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate; whether the Litigation should be dismissed with prejudice; and whether Lead Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees of up to 33 and 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, and expenses not to exceed $1,000,000.00, plus interest on both amounts, and an award to Lead Plaintiff, should be granted.

If approved, the Settlement will resolve a class action lawsuit alleging that, in violation of the federal securities laws, National Instruments repurchased its common stock during the Class Period while in possession of, and without disclosing, material non-public information concerning acquisition proposals it had received from Emerson Electric Co., causing Class Members who sold National Instruments common stock during the Class Period to do so at artificially depressed prices. Defendants deny all allegations of wrongdoing and any liability whatsoever. For a full description of the proposed Settlement and your rights, and to make a claim, you may obtain the Stipulation, the long-form Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action (the “Settlement Notice”), and the Proof of Claim and Release form (the “Proof of Claim”) by visiting the case website, www.nationalinstrumentssecuritiesclassaction.com, or you may request copies from the Claims Administrator by: (i) mail: National Instruments Securities Settlement, c/o Strategic Claims Services, P.O. Box 230, 600 N. Jackson Street, Suite 205, Media, PA 19063; (ii) toll-free call: (866) 274-4004; or (iii) email: info@strategicclaims.net.

To qualify for a payment from the Settlement, you must submit a valid Proof of Claim, with supporting documentation, postmarked or submitted online no later than January 14, 2027. Your pro rata share of the Settlement will depend on the number of valid claims submitted and the size and timing of your transactions in National Instruments common stock. Your actual share will be determined pursuant to the proposed Plan of Allocation set forth in the Settlement Notice, or such other plan of allocation as the Court may approve.

You will be bound by any judgment or order entered in the Litigation, regardless of whether you submit a Proof of Claim, unless you have previously and validly excluded yourself from the Class in response to the prior Notice of Pendency of Class Action in this Litigation. You may object to the proposed Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the request for an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses and an award to Lead Plaintiff, no later than December 18, 2026. The Settlement Notice and the case website explain how to object.

Lead Plaintiff and the Class are represented by Lead Counsel: Johnson Van Kwawegen LLP, Jonathan Zweig, 485 Madison Avenue, 15th Floor, New York, NY 10022, (646) 836-9630, jonathan@jvk-law.com. Please do not contact the Court or Defendants with questions about the Settlement. You may, but are not required to, attend the Settlement Hearing to be heard. The Court reserves the right to hold the Settlement Hearing by telephone or other virtual means and/or to change its date and time; please check the website for updates.
